(2) Any person arrested and detained under this section may be detained in police custody for a period not exceeding sixty days without an order of detention having been made in respect of him under subsection 6(1):

Provided that—

- (a) he shall not be detained for more than twenty four hours except with the authority of a police officer of or above the rank of Inspector;
- (b) he shall not be detained for more than forty eight hours except with the authority of a police officer of or above the rank of Assistant Superintendent of Police;

(3) The police officer making an investigation pertaining to a person arrested and detained under this section shall cause a copy of the complete report of the investigation to be submitted—

(a) to an Inquiry Officer appointed under subsection 5(1);
and

(b) to the Minister,

within such period as may be prescribed by the Minister by regulations made under this Act.

(3A) Where the person arrested and detained under subsection (1) is a person in respect of whom subsection 6(5) applies, the complete report of the investigation referred to in subsection (3) in respect of such person may include any statement, document, information, or other thing or material whatsoever which had been obtained in the course of any enquiries made in respect of such person by a police officer under section 3 of the Ordinance for the purpose of the detention order under section 4, or the restriction order under section 4A, as the case may be, of the Ordinance, against him, regardless that such statement, document, information, or other thing or material was obtained in a manner which does not accord or comply with the requirements of section 4, and it shall not be necessary for any statement to be taken under section 4 for the purpose of such report in respect of such person, but if any statement is taken under section 4 it shall also be included in such report in respect of such person.

(4) Any person detained under the powers conferred by this section shall be deemed to be in lawful custody, and may be detained in any prison, or in any police station, or in any other place authorized generally or specially by the Minister.

Examination of persons acquainted with the facts and circumstances of case

4. (1) For the purpose of satisfying the Minister that an order under subsection 6(1) should be made and for the purpose of enabling the Minister to furnish a statement under paragraph 9(2)(b), a police officer making an investigation under this Act may examine orally any person supposed to be acquainted with the facts and circumstances of the case and shall reduce into writing any statement made by the person so examined.

(2) Such person shall be bound to answer all questions relating to such case put to him by such officer.

(4) A police officer examining a person under subsection (1) shall first inform that person of subsections (2) and (3).

(5) A statement made by any person under subsection (1) shall bear the date and time of making thereof and shall be signed by the person making it or affixed with his thumbprint, as the case may be, after it has been read to him in the language in which it was made and after he has been given an opportunity to make any corrections he may wish.

(6) The foregoing provisions of this section shall be without prejudice to subsection 3(3A).

Inquiry Officer

(a) require the attendance before him of a person detained under section 3;

6. (1) Whenever the Minister, after considering—
- (a) the complete report of investigation submitted under subsection 3(3); and
 - (b) the report of the Inquiry Officer submitted under subsection 5(4), is satisfied with respect to any person that such person has been or is associated with any activity relating to or involving the trafficking in dangerous drugs, the Minister may, if he is satisfied that it is necessary in the interest of public order that such person be detained, by order (hereinafter referred to as a “detention order”) direct that such person be detained for a period not exceeding two years.

(2) Every person detained in pursuance of a detention order shall be detained in such place (hereinafter referred to as a “place of detention”) as the Minister may direct and in accordance with any instructions issued by the Minister and any regulations made under section 22.

(3) If the Minister is satisfied that for the purpose mentioned in subsection (1) it is necessary that control and supervision should be exercised over any person or that restrictions and conditions should be imposed upon that person in respect of his activities, freedom of movement or places of residence or employment, but for that purpose it is unnecessary to detain him, he may make an order (hereinafter referred to as a “restriction order”) imposing upon that person (hereinafter referred to as a “restricted person”) all or any of the following restrictions and conditions:

- (a) that he shall be subject to the supervision of the police for any period not exceeding two years;
- (b) that he shall reside within the limits of any State or any Federal Territory or any area thereof specified in the restriction order;
- (c) that he shall not transfer his residence to any other area without the written authority of the Chief Police Officer of the State or Federal Territory concerned;
- (d) that except in so far as may be otherwise provided by the restriction order, he shall not leave the area within which he resides without the written authority of the Chief Police Officer of the State or Federal Territory concerned;
- (e) that he shall at all times keep the Officer in Charge of the Police District in which he resides notified of the house or place in which he resides;
- (f) that he shall at such time or times as may be specified in the restriction order present himself at the nearest police station;
- (g) that he shall remain within doors, or within such area as may be defined in the restriction order, between such hours as may be specified in the restriction order, unless he obtains special permission to the contrary from the Officer in Charge of the Police District;
- (h) that except in so far as may be otherwise provided by the restriction order, he shall not enter any area specified in the restriction order;
- (i) that he shall keep the peace and be of good behaviour;
- (j) that he shall enter into a bond, with or without sureties as the Minister may direct and in such amount as may be specified in the restriction order, for his due compliance with the restrictions and conditions imposed on him by the restriction order.

(4) Every restriction order shall continue in force for such period, not exceeding two years, as may be specified therein, and may include a direction by the Minister that the person in respect of whom it is made shall enter into a bond with or without sureties and in such sum as may be specified for his due compliance with the restrictions and conditions imposed upon him.

(5) A detention order under subsection (1), or a restriction order under subsection (3), may be made against a person notwithstanding that immediately, or at any time, before his arrest and detention under subsection 3(1)—

- (a) he had been detained under a detention order made under section 4, or had been subject to a restriction order made under section 4A, of the Ordinance on grounds which are wholly or partly the same as or similar to the grounds on which the detention order under subsection (1) or the restriction order under subsection (3) is to be made against him; and
- (b) he had been released from detention either upon the expiry of the duration of the said detention order made under section 4 of the Ordinance against him, or otherwise howsoever before such expiry, or had ceased to be subject to the said restriction order made under section 4A of the Ordinance against him either upon the expiry of the duration of the said restriction order, or otherwise howsoever before such expiry.

(6) The Minister may, from time to time, by notice in writing served on a person who is the subject of a restriction order, vary, cancel or add to any restrictions or conditions imposed upon that person by that order, and the restrictions or conditions so varied and any additional restrictions or conditions so imposed shall, unless sooner cancelled, continue in force for the unexpired portion of the period specified under subsection (4) or under subsection 11A(1).

(7) Any restricted person who contravenes or fails to comply with any restriction or condition expressed in his restriction order shall be guilty of an offence and shall on conviction be punished with imprisonment for a term not exceeding five years and not less than three years.

Detention order not to be invalid or inoperative on certain grounds

6A. (1) No detention order shall be invalid or inoperative by reason—

(a) that the person to whom it relates—

- (i) was immediately before the making of the detention order detained in any place other than a place of detention referred to in subsection 6(2);
- (ii) continued to be detained immediately after the making of the detention order in the place in which he was detained under section 3 before his removal to a place of detention referred to in subsection 6(2), notwithstanding that the maximum period of such detention under subsection 3(2) had expired; or
- (iii) was during the duration of the detention order on journey in police custody or any other custody to a place of detention referred to in subsection 6(2); or

(b) that the detention order was served on him at any place other than the place of detention referred to in subsection 6(2), or that there was any defect relating to its service upon him.

(2) No fresh detention order or fresh restriction order referred to in subsection 11B(2) shall be invalid or inoperative by reason that no fresh report has been submitted under subsection 3(3) and subsection 5(4) or that that detention order or restriction order was made on the same ground as the previous detention order or restriction order.

Suspension of detention orders

7. (1) The Minister may, at any time, direct that the operation of any detention order be suspended subject to all or any of the restrictions and conditions which he is empowered by subsection 6(3) to impose by a restriction order, and subject, if the Minister so directs, to the requirement that the person against whom the detention order was made shall enter into a bond as provided in subsection 6(4).

(2) Where a detention order is suspended as aforesaid, subsection 6(6) shall have effect as if the restrictions and conditions on which the detention order is suspended were restrictions and conditions imposed by a restriction order.

(3) The Minister may revoke the suspension of any detention order if he is satisfied that the person against whom the detention order was made has failed to observe any restriction or condition imposed upon him or that it is necessary in the interest of public order that the suspension should be revoked, and in any such case the revocation of the suspension shall be sufficient authority to any police officer to re-arrest without warrant the person against whom the detention order was made, and that person shall as soon as practicable be returned to his former place of detention or, if the Minister so directs, sent to another place of detention.

(4) The suspension of any detention order as aforesaid shall, subject to subsection 6(6) as applied by subsection (2) and subject also to subsection (3), continue in force for the unexpired portion of the period of the detention order specified under subsection 6(1) or under subsection 11A(1).

Detention or restriction deemed to be undergone during period of imprisonment

8. Where a person—

- (a) who is undergoing detention or restriction under section 6 or 7, is sentenced to any term of imprisonment under this Act or any other written law; or
- (b) has his period of detention or restriction extended under subsection 11A(1) whilst he is serving any such term of imprisonment, such detention or restriction or extended detention or restriction shall be deemed to be undergone concurrently with that term of imprisonment, and if upon completion of any such term of imprisonment, there still remains any unexpired portion of the detention or restriction period or of the extended detention or restriction period, he shall be required to be detained or restricted, as the case may be, for such unexpired portion thereof.

Representations against detention order

9. (1) A copy of every order made by the Minister under subsection 6(1) shall as soon as may be after the making thereof be served on the person to whom it relates, and every such person shall be entitled to make representations to an Advisory Board.

(2) For the purpose of enabling a person to make representations under subsection (1) he shall, at the time of the service on him of the order—

(a) be informed of his right to make representations to an Advisory Board under subsection (1); and

(b) be furnished by the Minister with a statement in writing—

(i) of the grounds on which the order is made;

(ii) of the allegations of fact on which the order is based; and

(iii) of such other particulars, if any, he may in the opinion of the Minister reasonably require in order to make his representations against the order to the Advisory Board.

(3) The Yang di-Pertuan Agong may make rules as to the manner in which representations may be made and for regulating the procedure of the Advisory Board.

Report of Advisory Board

10. (1) Whenever any person has made representations under subsection 9(1) to an Advisory Board, the Advisory Board shall within three months from the date of receiving such representations, or within such longer period as the Yang di-Pertuan Agong may allow, consider the representations and make recommendations thereon to the Yang di-Pertuan Agong.

(2) Upon considering the recommendations of the Advisory Board under this section, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong may give the Minister such directions, if any, as he shall think fit regarding the order made by the Minister and every decision of the Yang di-Pertuan Agong shall, subject to section 11, be final and shall not be called into question in any court.

Review

11. (1) Every order or direction made or given by the Minister under the subsection 6(1) or (3), or under section 7, or under subsection 11A(1), shall, so long as it remains in force and whether or not representations under section 9 have been made, be reviewed by an Advisory Board not earlier than twelve months from the date of such order or direction and in any case not later than three months before the expiration of the period mentioned in such order or direction:

Provided that the Minister may, at any time during the period of detention or restriction imposed by such order or direction, direct the Advisory Board to review the case.

(2) The Advisory Board shall, on completing every review under this section, submit to the Minister, before the expiration of the period of detention or restriction, a written report of every such review.

(3) Where the Advisory Board has reported that in its opinion the detention or restriction should cease, the Minister shall revoke the detention order or restriction order.

(4) Where the Advisory Board has reported that in its opinion the detention or restriction should continue, the Minister may continue the detention or restriction of the person concerned.

Minister's power to extend a detention order, a restriction order, or a suspended detention order

11A. (1) The Minister may at any time before the expiration of the duration of—

- (a) a detention order made under subsection 6(1);
- (b) a restriction order made under subsection 6(3); or
- (c) a detention order suspended under subsection 7(1) (hereinafter referred to as a “suspended detention order”), direct that the duration of the order be extended for such further period, not exceeding two years, as he may specify, commencing immediately upon the expiration of its then current duration, and where the Minister so directs he shall set out in the direction the grounds for the extension and state whether such grounds are—

- (aa) the same as the grounds on which the order was originally made;
- (bb) different from the grounds on which the order was originally made; or
- (cc) partly the same grounds and partly different grounds.

(2) Where the duration of a suspended detention order is extended under subsection (1), the duration of the direction for its suspension under subsection 7(1) shall be deemed to be extended for the duration of the extension of the suspended detention order together with the restrictions and conditions imposed in respect of such suspension, subject, if the Minister so directs, to the requirement that the person against whom the detention order was made shall enter into a fresh bond as provided in subsection 6(4), and section 7 shall apply to such extended suspension in the same manner as they apply to an original suspension under subsection 7(1).

(3) Where the direction under subsection (1) for the extension of the duration of a detention order or a suspended detention order is on grounds which fall under paragraph (1)(bb) or (cc), sections 9 and 10 shall apply to such direction as if the direction were a fresh detention order.

(4) The duration of a detention order, or a restriction order, or a suspended detention order, which is extended under subsection (1) may, thereafter, be further extended from time to time for further periods not exceeding two years at a time, and the provisions of this section shall apply mutatis mutandis in relation to each such extension.

Minister's power to revoke a detention order, or a restriction order, or a suspended detention order, or a direction for the extension of any such order

11B. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Minister may at any time revoke any detention order made under subsection 6(1), or any restriction order made under subsection 6(3), or any suspended detention order, or any direction under subsection 11A(1) for the extension of the duration of any such order, if he deems it just or fit to do so.

(2) Any revocation under subsection (1) shall be without prejudice to the validity of the order or direction before its revocation or to anything done thereunder, or to the power of the Minister to make a fresh detention order under subsection 6(1) or a fresh restriction order under subsection 6(3) or a fresh direction under subsection 11A(1) in respect of the person against whom the order or direction which is revoked was made or given.

Judicial review of act or decision of Yang di-Pertuan Agong and Minister

Act, whether such proceedings were instituted before or after the coming into force of the Dangerous Drugs (Special Preventive Measures) (Amendment) Act 1989 [Act A738].

(2) A reference to proceedings in subsection (1) shall not include a reference to proceedings which had concluded and in respect of which final decision of the court had been given before the coming into force of the Dangerous Drugs (Special Preventive Measures) (Amendment) Act 1989, or to any appeal or any application for appeal against such final decision.
